Teaching American History (TAH)

“A More Perfect Union: The Origins and Development of the U.S. Constitution”

Application for Stipend Position

Applications for stipend ($2,500) participation in the 2010 professional development TAH Seminar program are sought from interested teachers. This activity involves eight full-day and four half-day presentations by nationally known authors with follow-up discussion, interaction and project development. The 2010 seminar program is the first of a three-year Program of TAH grant funded professional development (see attached pages for seminar details and a program abstract.) This application should be sent to your district's central office curriculum administrator. Note: Only a limited number of participants "slots" are available for each Consortium member district.

Application deadline is on or before December 1, 2009.
