Teaching American History (TAH)

Year 3-Teaching American History:

“Progressivism, World War I, the Twenties, the New Deal, World War II, the Cold War, and the constitutional and cultural conflicts that have accompanied the Civil Rights revolution”

Application for Stipend Position

Applications for stipend participation ($2,500) in the 2012 professional development TAH Seminar program are sought from interested teachers. This activity involves eight full-day and four half-day presentations by nationally known authors with follow-up discussion, interaction and project development. The 2012 seminar program is the third of a three-year Program of TAH grant funded professional development (See attached pages for seminar details and a program abstract.) This application should be sent to your district’s central office curriculum administrator.

Note: A limited number of participants “slots” are available for each Consortium member district.

Application from past participants does not guarantee a place for 2012.
Application deadline is on or before December 1, 2011.
